Quiet Campaign Is Concluding

An unusually quiet election campaign ends next Tuesday when voting for city officials in the Democratic primary takes place. Although there are three candidates for mayor, incumbent John A. Scalfie, Justice of the Peace Russell Elliott and ex-sheriff Burton D. Johnson, there is no indication of any change in the tempo during the last few days.

JFK's Attorney

Many persons criticized the appointment by President John F. Kennedy of his brother, Mr. Robert Kennedy, for the post of attorney general of the United States. The fact that he was the President's brother, his youth and lack of experience were the major reasons given by those who felt the appointment a mistake.

Those opposing Mr. Robert Kennedy's appointment, if they watched and thought, would have learned a less vague reason for their opposition last week when a New Orleans television station showed a 20 minute interview with the attorney general.

Mr. Kennedy, attorney general type, showed facility at answering questions or avoiding them, he undoubtedly pleased many in this area with his comment that many non-Southerners were hypocritical in their attitudes relative to the Southern viewpoint of no mixed social relations between our whites and negroes. Mr. Kennedy also showed a marked propensity for confusing the issue by incorrect use of words such as equal, right, wrong, democratic and others that without elaboration really have no meaning. His word usage was not far from that expected of Moscow's newspaper, Pravda, in whose terminology Russia is "democratic".

In addition Mr. Kennedy repeatedly showed two other major professional mistakes. As illustration, he referred to himself as all citizens' attorney, when he is only the attorney for the President of this country. He is in the President's cabinet period. He also showed a complete lack of knowledge of our law dealing with court orders when in obvious reference to the case of Brown vs. Board of Education 74 Sup. Ct. 686, he in essence said that any public body trying to avoid the effects of that decision was circumventing the court's order. The order in that case ran only to four specific school systems. No others are in any respect ordered to do anything.

While realizing that Mr. Kennedy didn't graduate very high in his law school class and knowing that he has no experience as a practicing attorney, we can't feel that this misinterpretation of law was through ignorance. Throughout the interview Mr. Kennedy reiterated the idea that he favored legal results that were "right", meaning his idea of right. Not once did he indicate that he wanted results that were right under our laws, nor did he once indicate any consideration for the many who disagree with his views of what is "right".

No, Mr. Kennedy, you are not our attorney, and we are sorry you are the President's legal advisor.

Our governor, Mr. Ross Barnett, is quoted as saying that if Mississippi authorities get hold of escapee, Cowboy Dale Morris, he will "never have another free day from the penitentiary as long as I am governor". That's fine, but how come he has had two vacations already, and Parchman warden, Mr. Fred Jones, has now been returned to office after his short vacation therefrom? Mr. Jones might well heed the comment of one Florida authority that "trusties should be named riskies".

Next week is hospital week nationwide. In Hancock County we have more than usual reason to think of our hospital during that week. We have a new and, for its size, particularly good hospital and all of us are invited to visit this addition to our county during next week.

Obviously Miss Diane Bilbo is to be congratulated on being queen of St. Joseph Academy's spring festival. More impressive to us is the realization of her obvious popularity where she lives, Kila. That small community really got behind Miss Bilbo and are primarily responsible for this honor to Miss Bilbo. The Echo thanks both Miss Bilbo and Kila deserve a long round of applause.

Patrick Wayne portrays the courageous Captain James Bonham in his father's $12,000, 1940 Technicolor production of "The Alamo." John Wayne stars as Col. David Crockett.

the recent census taken by teachers shows 3,446 children in the school through 21 age group. This includes 2,360 white children and 1,086 colored.

The census, taken every two years to determine the present and future needs of the school system, reveals there are 1,679 white children from 6 to 21 years old, and 670 in the pre-schooler up to six years old range.

It also shows there are 44 negro children aged 6 through 21 and 250 up to six years of age.

McCulloch said the law requires each school superintendent to enumerate the children in his district showing names, ages, sex and any other information required specifically by the department of education.

The superintendent said that the state wide census for the school term 1959-1960 showed 320,524 educable children. The actual enrollment for the same period was 287,781 showing 32,743 school age children not in school. McCulloch explained this is a result of students getting married and a result of the repeal of the compulsory education law in 1956.

MR. AND MRS. EDUARDO GUIDO

Miss Lytell, Mr. Guido Are Wed at St. Clare's

Miss Elaine Lytell and Eduardo Guido exchanged their wedding vows Sunday at St. Clare's Catholic Church in Waveland with Rev. M. J. Costello performing the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with bouquets of white gladioli and greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lytell of Waveland while his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Guido of New Orleans.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a short frock of white silk organza with a very full skirt. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. The skirt was sprinkled with lace medallions embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. Her short veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli blossoms centered with a purple orchid.

The groom's sister, Miss Susan Guido, of New Orleans was the only attendant. Her short frock was of pale blue sheer with a snug bodice trimmed at the vee neckline with a single rose fashioned of matching fabric. The sleeves were short cap ones and the skirt was very full.

She wore a crown of pink carnations and carried a bouquet of the same flowers. Matching slippers completed her ensemble.

Kenneth Fayard, a cousin of the bride, was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Jr., also cousins, entertained at a reception at their home on Fayard Street in Waveland after the religious rites.

White flowers and greenery were used to decorate the reception rooms.

Mrs. Lytell selected a model of powder blue silk accented with white accessories and Mrs. Guido was in a two piece black suit with white accessories. Their flowers were white gladioli.

The bride's table was covered in white and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and tiny soldier. Assisting in serving were Miss Aline Lytell, Mrs. Edward Fayard and Mrs. James Hall of Biloxi.

The couple honeymooned on the Coast and Mrs. Guido traveled in a beige suit, beige accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. They plan to reside temporarily with her parents until the groom completes training at Keesler Air Force Base.

Miss Johnson Is Wed to Mr. Barrett

In a quiet ceremony Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church attended by members of the immediate families, Miss Carol Marie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton D. Johnson, became the bride of Alvin First Class William Marcus Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Julius Barrett of Kirkwood, Mo.

Rev. Kevin Reid performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

Miss Johnson selected a mint green polished cotton accented with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Her sister, Margaret, was her only attendant and wore a yellow and white two piece ensemble with white accessories.

Attending the groom was a brother of the bride, Burton E. Johnson.

A small family party followed at the home of the bride's parents on North Second Street. Mrs. Johnson wore a blue suit and white accessories for the occasion.

The couple will live at 205 Carroll Ave.

Mrs. Barrett is a graduate of Bay High School and is employed with Public Finance Co., in Gulfport. The groom attended schools in Kirkwood and is stationed presently at Keesler Air Force Base.

MRS. DANIEL EDWARD CAMBRE

Delisle Church Is Scene Of Cambre-Peranich Rites

Our Lady of Good Hope Church in Delisle was the setting last Saturday for the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Peranich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred John Peranich, and Daniel Edward Cambre. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joseph Cambre of New Orleans.

Rev. John T. O'Brien performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with white blossoms and greenery. Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a empire styled gown of white delustrated satin fashioned with a scooped neckline and a pleated cummerbund. The elbow length sleeves were scalloped and trimmed with tiny covered buttons. The long skirt ended in the back in a chapel train and was decorated with satin roses. A coronet of orange blossoms held her veil of illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white rosebuds and lily.

A sister of the groom, Miss Valerie Ann Cambre, was the maid of honor and the matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. John Peranich, of Biloxi. Another sister of the groom little Miss Georgine Cambre, was the flower girl.

The two older attendants wore short frocks of pale green silk organza with very full skirts and fitted bodices. They had matching veiling on their heads and carried arrangements of pastel spring flowers.

The flower girl was in a short dress of white embroidered organza and lace and carried a nosegay of white rosebuds. On her head was a wreath of white rosebuds.

The best man was David Peranich, a brother of the bride and the groom's brother. Ushering were Gerard Frey and George Reitmeyer, both of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Peranich entertained at the Miramar Hotel in Pass Christian following the ceremony. English dogwood, magnolias and ivy decorated the main rooms.

To receive, Mrs. Peranich was in a dusty rose silk chiffon afternoon dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Cambre in beige linen. Their flowers were cymbidium orchids.

The bride's table was covered in a white curwork cloth over pale green satin and held a three tiered cake. After the couple cut the first slice, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Alden M. Keel, served. Miss Sue Breath was in charge of the register.

Florida was the honeymoon destination of the young couple and for traveling, Mrs. Cambre wore a seafaring green silk two piece ensemble, bone accessories and a corsage of yellow orchids. They plan to live at 6997 Catina St., New Orleans.

She is a graduate of St. Joseph Academy and was employed at a local bank. A graduate of St. Stanislaus, Mr. Cambre is with Star Auto Glass Co., in New Orleans.

FINAL MESSAGE BEFORE THE PRIMARY ELECTION IN BEHALF OF THE CANDIDACY OF RUSSELL J. ELLIOTT FOR MAYOR

Dear Friends:

In this last issue of the papers prior to the election, Tuesday May 9th, I wish to thank the citizens of our city for the wonderful reception given me during my campaign and the overwhelming pledges for support I received that I KNOW WILL BE FULFILLED BY YOU, the honest people of our community. For this I will be forever grateful and I, IN TURN, ALSO WILL FULFILL ALL MY PLEDGES made during this campaign.

Being a young family man, in defense of my reputation, I wish, at this time once again to refer to my paid advertisement in last week's papers, quote "I have expressed publicly my criticism and views of the incumbent's terms as mayor in my desire to carry on an honorable and gentlemanly campaign. I HAVE STATED facts and HAVE NOT RESORTED TO UNDERHANDED, VICIOUS, HYPOCRITICAL AND SLANDEROUS RUMORS about my opponent, his family or his supporters" I feel my arrogant opponent in failing to deny these accusations of his ungentlemanly-like campaigning automatically admitted having made these erroneous accusations about me and my family. I assume he resorted to these tactics in fear of losing the election.

I trust I have convinced you that I have the ENERGY, DIGNITY, CAPABILITY AND DETERMINATION TO PERFORM my many new ideas for the promotion and betterment of our city, such as previously published:

PROMOTE INDUSTRY THROUGH NATURAL RESOURCES PROMOTE PAYROLLS MAKE HOSPITAL APPROACH ACCESSIBLE AT ALL TIMES PAID VACATIONS FOR CITY EMPLOYEES NO GRAFT OR KICK-BACKS DISBURSE CITY MONEY WITH LOCAL MERCHANTS NO FORCED ISSUES REQUEST THE VOICE OF ALL CITIZENS IN OPERATING OUR CITY.

THESE ARE BONDED PLEDGES THAT I WILL DEFINITELY CARRY OUT and I WILL cooperate with the City Council as AN ASSET instead of a LIABILITY.

I humbly request the support and vote of all people. I will not disappoint you. I will be an administrative aggressive mayor and will expend every effort for the promotion and progress of the City of Bay St. Louis.

LIFE ALONG PEARL RIVER

By HENRY OTIS Photo 2564

C. J. Symons, Jr., is spending a few days at his home in Logtown before returning to his duties aboard the tug, another which is presently working between New Orleans and the points. Guests at the home were the Symons family, and Mrs. Mary Stuart Symons, all of Logtown.

Logtown residents should observe Youth Week along with Christian Youth Week beginning today with all the young people in town. The program will include special services for the youth of Logtown, and the youth of the entire river. The youth of Logtown will observe Youth Week in the Logtown Church, and the youth of the entire river will observe Youth Week in the Logtown Church, and the youth of the entire river will observe Youth Week in the Logtown Church.

There was a funeral for the late Mrs. John Symons, who was 80 years old, at the Logtown Church, Logtown, Miss., on Tuesday. The funeral was held at 10:30 a.m. and was officiated by the Rev. J. C. Symons, Jr. The burial was in the Logtown Cemetery.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Arthur Miller of Logtown who was buried Monday, as well as to the family of Mrs. Cora Mitchell of Logtown who passed away on Tuesday.

Plans are well under way for the homecoming at Logtown Methodist Church Sunday, May 28, at 10:30 a.m. All former residents of the community, as well as the younger generation, are invited to attend the service followed by lunch which will be held at the Logtown School Gym. Coffee and soft drinks will be served with the picnic lunches which the guests are expected to bring.

At a meeting of the Logtown School P-TA Tuesday night, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Nellie Jones, president; Mrs. Evelyn Jones, vice president; Henry Otis, secretary; and Mrs. Rosalie Crawford, treasurer. Following the business meeting, an interesting program was presented by Coast Electric which gave those present a better insight into the services and activities of the firm. Nice door prizes were given to the lucky recipients, and delicious hot cakes and coffee was served.

Hancock Insurance Agency's Protection Question Box

BY MARGARET H. SHADON MANAGER

Question: We have a substantial amount of life insurance, homeowners insurance, hospitalization and major medical insurance. Is our program complete?

Answer: Not quite. You've failed to insure the family's breadwinner's income, your most important asset. If he became totally disabled and lost his earning power—even for a few months—wouldn't you, like most families, find yourselves in a desperate financial situation?

To find out how you can have low-cost protection against such an overcast, call

Any oil or gas there, Jim? Geologists use every known method of detecting oil or natural gas in "cores" taken from deep in the earth during the drilling of wells. James A. Rowell, Jr., who works for United's producing subsidiary, is shown here as he smells and tastes a sandy sample from thousands of feet "down under." That's just one of the complex jobs of geologists in the never-ending search for new reserves of oil and natural gas. United Gas is mighty proud of its geologists, for they are an important part of the big "team" that is working to assure our customers adequate, dependable supplies of natural gas.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

For the first time in many weeks we have good news. All forms of angling, including soft shell crabbing and floundering, are picking up. Green trout and perch are abundant in the rivers and bayous while speckled trout are beginning to show in outside waters, some being caught at the Keys, Half Moon and even off the seawall around Jackson Ridge and Waveland.

Surface fly fishing has proved successful for green trout and some specks were caught on lures. Monday night was good for flounder and soft shells and the Bay was lit up like a Christmas tree for the first time this year. High winds continued to hamper anglers and kept the water somewhat muddy but some very good catches were made anyhow.

The Seas Were Rough

Julian Lorenzen reports he was at Half Moon Sunday morning and "man was it rough". He hooked about a three and a half pound speck on his second cast and figured he was in a school so didn't worry about a landing net, losing the beauty when it hit the side of the boat. Turned out to be the only strike of the day.

Bob Torgersen tried to get out Saturday from Bayou Caddy but was disgusted when a much bigger boat than he was using returned with the news that the waves were ten to 12 feet high. He tied up his hull and joined about 100 other anglers who were fishing off the seawall at Jackson Ridge.

Marine Conservation Commissioner Joseph Colson reports there is a special meeting set for May 15 to discuss trammel net fishing; that the commissioners want to adopt a program to restrict net fishing to certain areas. Should be a hot one.

Raul Telhard to back in business and we hear his freezer is stocked with green trout caught during the weekend.

Seen At Jackson Ridge

Our contemporary, Polly Peers, says the seawall between Jackson Ridge and Clermont Harbor was lined with old pro anglers Monday afternoon including Pat Garcia, Nolan Ladner, Lee Ferrell, Eddie Foyard, Harold Zimmerman and Bill Goelzenleuchter.

Eddie and Rita Blazie were trying for flounder one night last week and saw innumerable beds. Eddie was dumbfounded when showing one to Rita where a flounder had apparently just left he poked his finger in the sand setting off an explosion when a big one took off like greased lightning.

Mayor John Scalfie received a new type fishing lure from Leon Thomas of the Col. MIM group last Tuesday who made the presentation at the request of the manufacturer in Picayune. Thomas also instructed Johnny not to forget him (Thomas) if he catches a big one. Don't forget us either, Johnny.

Sheriff Gerald Price is in the process of consummating long range plans to extend his operations on water as well as land. He said this week he expects to have a 19-foot patrol boat in operation by July 1 and has organized a crew of skin divers to be used in emergency and rescue operations. They are Joe Cure, Tom Karl, Jr., Richard Holmes and Louis Fernandez and latest reports say they are planning a meeting soon. With more and more boats being operated in the waters of Hancock County Gerald is filling a long-felt need.

A seagoing second mate, Robert Mackley, has prepared a map of Gulf Coast waters showing offshore oil rigs, shrimp and fishery areas and locations of 48 wrecks that should be of great help to skin divers. In fact it should be of value to anyone interested in the coastal waters and fishing.

Eddie's Cooking Corner

Are you plagued with uninvited guests who remain for dinner even though you are not prepared? Try this recipe for beer soup. Ingredients are 1 pint beer, 1 cup water, salt and sugar, 2 eggs (separated), 1 cup milk and 1 tablespoon flour. Add water to beer, bring to a boil, season with salt and nuxmeg if desired. Beat yolks with a little sugar and flour mixed; add milk stir until smooth. Stir all together in the hot beer mixture, let come nearly to a boil, fold in beaten whites and serve at once with toasted bread cubes and watch your guests turn green.

The overflow crowd that attended the spring festival Saturday night at St. Joseph Academy were treated to some rare performances by the little maids and dukes. The maids entered the gymnasium floor from the stage while the dukes waited in the center of the floor. One very commanding-type little fellow refused to bow to his maid until she stood in the center of a circle where he indicated very sternly. Another tiny maid refused to stand in the designated place in front of the stage and insisted on sitting on the plush covered steps. Her escort apparently figured if she could get away with it he could too so enounced himself on the other side of the steps.

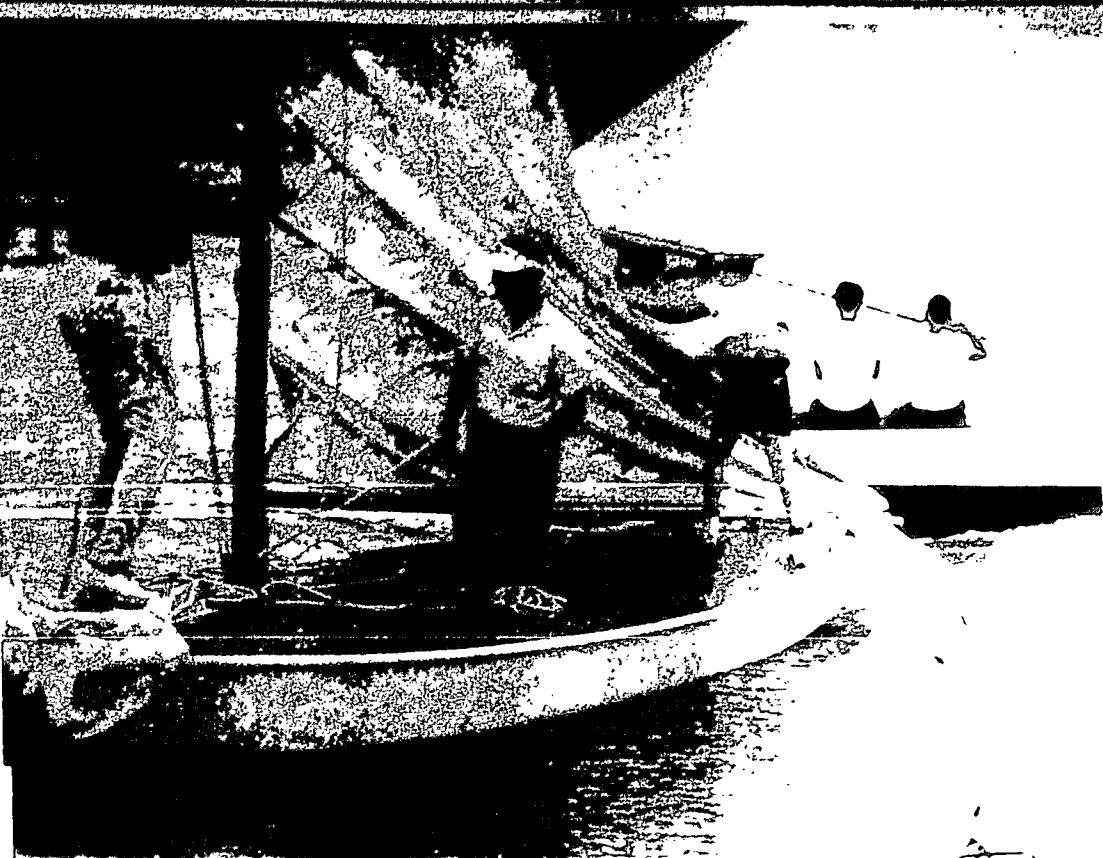

Another one of our scouts, Bess Wagner, reports she read that a New Orleans' columnist claims armadillos, on which we expounded last week, is delicious roasted but after reading the animal's usual diet we are not inclined to agree. The encyclopedia states "they are eaten by the South Americans and even esteemed delicacies but their flesh is usually so flavored by the insects and decayed matter which they eat that only a few vegetable-eating species are inoffensive to an unaccustomed palate. Incidentally one species gets as big as six feet long."

Facts on Prize Fights

Wonder how many of our television-watching friends know that the first fight on tv, publicly screened, was in London, England, Feb. 23, 1939, between Eric Boon and Arthur Danahar. Also that the first round-by-round broad-cast was the Dempsey-Carpentier fight in 1921. J. Andrew White was announcer. It was the first million-dollar gate. Biggest gate ever was the Dempsey-Tunney affair Sept. 22, 1927, at Soldier Field, Chicago, which drew 104,943 people who paid $2,658,660.

Plans are shaping up for the 13th annual Mississippi Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo, one of the world's largest sport fishing classics, May 1-4. President Bob Rice has appointed an Inter-American Regional committee to arrange for representatives from Latin and South American countries. As usual headquarters will be in Gulfport's small craft harbor.

Head in Bordages Brothers Fishing Camp; sergeant to new state in Army camp. "All right, bud, it's four-thirty." "Four-thirty" came the sleepy reply, man you better get to bed, we got a long day tomorrow."

RACING SEASON OPENS - Boatmen hoist their sails and rush to get their craft in shape for the second day of racing Sunday at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. The season opened Saturday with the first Mallory and Adams elimination rounds.

Chapman Has Lead In Mallory Series

Harry Chapman took the lead in the first four races of the six-race Adams elimination of the Mallory series last weekend at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

The final two races, as part of the series to pick the skipper who will compete for the Western district elimination championship of the North American Racing competition to be at the local club May 13 and 14, will be at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Little Leaguers To Start Practice

Forty-two new boys have signed to date for Little League baseball play this summer, according to Mrs. Theo Tudury, recreation director of the City Parks and Playground Commission.

Little Leaguers are to report at 9:30 a.m. Monday, May 22, at the city ball park to begin workouts in preparation for regular play which starts June 1.

Boys who played last year are to report to the ball park at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday with their team managers. New boys are to report at 3:30 p.m. next Friday.

The Gulf Yachting Assn. opening regatta will be Saturday and Sunday at Sarasota, Fla., with the 14 clubs stretching from New Orleans to Sarasota having skippers in three races. Bay-Waveland Yacht Club skippers entered are Leo Seal, Jr., John McDonald and Dr. Leroy McFarland. Also representing the club there will be Kenneth Peppardene, commodore, and Henry Chapman.

Winning pitcher Hammy Morel held the Hawks to one hit, a single by losing hurler Douglas Naccase. The Tigers belted out seven hits including three for three by Richard Schaefer, a single and a double out of three trips by Ronnie Peterson and a single by Bernie Benigno.

Pitchers Duel to 1-0 Score

A historic high school baseball thriller took place at Biloxi Saturday when a Notre Dame's nationally famous pitcher, Lefty Chris Taramo, locked horns with St. Stanislaus twirler Lefty Charlie Karallia. The Rebels scored an unearned run in the final inning to win 1-0 but both pitchers were credited with no-hitters.

It was Taramo's tenth straight victory without defeat, his seventh no-hitter in eight starts this season for a total of 55 innings with only one hit.

Both pitchers mowed down the opposing batters with amazing regularity, Taramo walking two men while striking out 16 and Karallia walking only 1, hitting two and striking out 10.

The game's only run came in the bottom of the seventh and final frame with two out. Notre Dame's Johnny Hart was safe on an error to open the inning and Ross drew a free pass. Bass struck out but both runners advanced on a passed ball. Guarino popped to third for the second out. McGinn hit a hot liner to third baseman Gore who fielded the ball well but the throw was wide and Hart scampered home with the winning tally.

Propose Hunt Dates

Recommendations for the 1961-1962 hunting seasons were made by southeast Mississippi sportsmen at an open meeting last Saturday night at Ocean Springs for which W. R. (Jack) Ladner of Bay St. Louis was a member of the three-man panel leading the discussion.

He and Hillard Jones of Jackson County and F. J. Gouzier of Harrison County are to attend a state-wide meeting in Jackson Wednesday to present the proposals to the State Game Commission.

The open dates recommended were squirrels, Nov. 1-Dec. 31, coinciding with the Red Creek management areas; doves, the same amount of days as now.
